MONDAY, January 14th, 1745. [Numb. 564]

The Treaty of Union concluded at Francfort, on May 22d, 1744.

From the London Gazette, Sept. 15.

WHEREAS, after the Decease of his late Imperial Majesty, Charles the VI. there arose, with Regard to the Austrian Succession, as every one knows, Incidents of extreme Consequence, whereby not only the German Country fell under deplorable Misfortunes, but Things are now come to such Extremity, that in the End, a total Overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, of its System, its Laws, and Constitution, is to be feared; the most Serene Prince and Lord, Charles the VIIth, elected Emperor of the Romans, [the whole Titles] the most Serene Prince and Lord Frederick, King of Prussia, as Elector of Brandenburg, [the whole Titles] the Serene Prince and Lord Charles Theodore, as Elector Palatine, [the whole Titles] and the most Serene Prince and Lord, Frederick, King of Sweden as Landgrave of Hesse, [all the Titles] respectively animated by paternal Affection for the Empire, and by the Zeal of Patriots, well intentioned for the common Prosperity of Germany, our dear Country, and for the Maintenance of the System of the Empire, have concluded between them, the Act of a constant and obligatory Union in Manner following, by their Ministers furnished with full Powers to that Effect, that is to say, on the Part of his Imperial Majesty, the Lord Ignatius Felix Joseph, Count of the Holy Empire, Count of Torino de Tettenbeck, &c. on the Part of the King of Prussia, as Elector of Brandenburg, &c. the Lord Joachim William of Klingraff, &c. on the Part of his Electoral Highness Palatine, &c. the Lord Herman Arnold, Baron of Wackendunk, &c. and on the Part of his Swedish Majesty, as Landgrave of Hesse, the Lord Augustus Maurice de Donop, &c. who have concluded and determined, in Expectation of the Ratification of their respective Courts.

I. The great End and principal View of this Confederation is to be, that all the Holy Roman Empire should be preserved in its accustomed Constitution, conformably to the Treaty of Peace of Westphalia, and to the other fundamental Laws of the Empire, that Peace and Tranquility should be re-established in Germany, and that the Preservation of the Rank, Dignity and Imperial Power be maintained.

II. The most High Allies oblige themselves to employ all the good Offices imaginable at the Court of Vienna, to the End that, in the first Place, it may be induced to acknowledge his Imperial Majesty, now reigning, as Chief of the Empire, to deliver up the Archives of the Empire, which it detains still at Vienna, and afterwards, by way of Preliminary, to restore to his Imperial Majesty, his Electoral, Hereditary and Patrimonial Country, which it with holds from him to this Time, contrary to the Union heretofore established among the Electors of the Empire.

III. The most High and High Allies, with regard to the Debates about the Austrian Succession, have agreed, that the Differences which have arisen hitherto in the Empire, in Relation thereto, shall be either accommodated in a friendly Manner, by the Mediation of all the States of the Empire, or determinated by a judicial Decision; but that, 'till such Time as this may be compassed, a general Armistice in Germany shall be stipulated.

IV. The most High and High Allies guaranty to one another all and each of the States and Countries they are actually in Possession of.

V. In Case that any one of the most High and High Confederates, should, upon Account of this Union, be attacked in the Countries that he actually possesses, the said most High and High Confederates oblige themselves to come, without any Delay, to the Succour of the injured Party, to assist him with all their Forces, and to continue that Assistance to him, till they have procured him a full and effectual Indemnification on the Part of the Aggressor.

VI. And as this Union of the Confederates tends solely to the Advantage of the whole Empire, it shall be free for all Electors, Princes and States, accede thereto, to which shall be particularly invited, and principally amongst others, Highness of Cobourg, his Polish Majesty as Elector of Saxony, and Serene Highness the Duke of Bavaria, Bishop of Liege.

And of this Act of Union, in the Names of the most High Principals here abovementioned, four similar Exemplars have been signed and sealed by their Ministers Plenipotentiaries above named and under written, and the Ratifications shall be procured and exchanged in the Space of six Weeks, reckoning from the Day of the Date, or even sooner if it is possible.

Done at Francfort, the 22d of May, 1744.

P.S. Charles VII [the whole Titles]

As I have learnt that a certain anonymous Piece, printed at Vienna, is dispersed in the Empire, pretending that there is a separate Article in the Treaty of Union concluded between us and the Electors or Princes and Confederates, you are to declare every where, that there is nothing ommitted nor added, in the Treaty of Union, in the Manner it is here inserted, and it does not contain any separate Articles, and that consequently all that is advanced concerning it in the Paper from Vienna, is invented and absolutely false. For the rest, &c.

Madrid, September 22.

The Court has received certain Information, that the Toulon Squadron had actually passed the Streights, and joined that of Brest; and tis likewise reported, that these two Squadrons have so block'd up the Fortress of Gibraltar, as to prevent their receiving any Provisions by Sea, while the Count de Roudeville, Governor General of Andalusia, takes all imaginable Precautions to prevent any Supplies being sent them by Land; whence such a Scarcity has arisen in that Place, that Bread and Beef are a ten Reas a Pound. These Letters add, that the Brest Squadron had lately taken nine Transports laden with Provisions for the Use of that Garrison, and that the Count de Roudeville has hanged up a Corregidor and two Officers of Justice, belonging to the Town of de de los Barlos, for having sold to that Garrison 200 Sacks of Flour.

Letter from the Hague, Sept. 4.

Last Tuesday a Report was made to the States General of the Resolutions of the Provinces, on the Queen of Hungary's Letter, and also on the Memorial delivered by Mr. Trevor, the British Minister the 17th of last Month

Merth. These Resolutions are not made publick; all that we know of the Matter is, that they have been delivered to Baron Reifchah and Mr. Trevor, and we judge by their Countenances, that they are not so favourable as their Court expected, and in the general Opinion here is still the same; i. e. That we must not expect the States General will come to a Rupture, or declare War against France this Year. Nevertheless, they fulfil their Engagements, by furnishing the Succours they owe, and to secure themselves from any Reproach on that Head: Their Artillery goes off by Degrees to the Confederate Army in Flanders, and Convoys of Ammunition &c. are daily taking the same Route. But all these Succours will arrive in as good Time as the Republick's Body of Auxiliaries did last Year on the Rhine. We are strongly attached here to the Festina Lente; for these Reasons, and some others less evident, we look upon the Campaign in Flanders to be over

The French in order to indemnify themselves for the Disappointment which Prince Charles occasioned them in Flanders, have resolved to attack Fribourg. The King's Army, under Ms Noailles and Coigny is in full March for that Expedition; and, according to the last Advices from those Parts, that Town is to be invested To morrow, & the Trenches opened the next Day. The same Advices likewise inform us, that a Body of 25,000 Men, under the Command of Duke de Harcourt, are on their March to Westphalia, where they are to occupy the same Camp that Marshal Maillebois did two Years ago; for what End they don't tell us; but one need not be a deep Politician to guess at it.

LONDON, September 4.

We hear from Portsmouth, that a few Days ago, a Man having been observed to be taking the Dimentions of the Guns on the Platform, he was desired to desist, as being very improper, at this Juncture; to which he answered, that he did it for Amusement, and walk'd away: But since that Time he was detected in doing the same Thing, and thereupon taken up and carried before the Governor, where being search'd, there was found in his Pocket an exact Account of all the Fortifications, Number of Guns, their Weight, how planted, and many other Particulars, which seem'd to mean something more than Amusement; on which the Governor committed him to Goal, for further Examination.

The Captains of the Privateers, &c. which have taken West India Ships, have order'd all the Sugars in said Ships to be started for the future before sold, to see if there is any Money concealed; and likewise all the Ballast to be taken out of them, and the Cielings of the Decks to be pull'd down.

September 7. We hear that the Honourable General Oglethorpe, with Three Regiments of Foot, will speedily embark for Georgia, for the Protection of that Infant Colony, from all Invasions of the Enemy.

September 17. The Fleet of Ships now rendezvousing at Spithead, under the Command of Admiral Davers, to relieve Sir Chaloner Ogle in the West-Indies, consists of Two of 90 Guns, Two of 80, Three of 70, Four of 60, and Four of 50, besides Hospital Ships and Tenders, which will sail from thence in a few Days.

Letters from Petersburgh say, that a Relation to the Prince of East-Friesland, who went thither some time ago, in order to sollicit the Empress's Protection to recover the Territories which the King of Prussia has taken Possession of, died in that City a few Days since. They add, that a Courier arriv'd the 23d of last Month with the News of the Empress's Arrival at Kiow, where her Imperial Majesty found assembled all the irregular Troops that had been quarter'd up and down the Ukraine, making an Army of between 50 & 60 000 Men, at the Sight of which her Imperial Majesty order'd a Draught of 25,000 Men to be made out of them, and sent into Livonia, in order to march to the Assistance of her Hungarian Majesty.

FEAR not, you've conquer'd your undaunted Foes;
REiches atchiev'd, to th'Pain of wooden Shoes.
ALike may all advance to Fortune great,
NE'er starting back, but boldly meet their Fate:
KIll'd or alive, the Laurel will such crown,
LEarning from Fr—nkl—nd, they'll receive renown.
AAtach'd to Honour, and of Courage bold,
NE'er fear your Foes, for you have got the Gold;
DIvidends equal your Proportions hold.

PROV'D Conduct always merits just Applause,
AAnd Honour will be aided by the Laws;
YOur late Atchievements will enrole in Fame,
NOthing more certain than a lasting Name:
EAch animated boldly did the same.

MEssieurs look grim to hear you may recover;
IN us but Joy appears, as tho' a Brother.
(THo' wounded) yet 'tis hop'd your Pain will cease,
COntentedly to live in Health and Ease.
HAppy, thrice happy will your Joy appear,
ENemy's t'have conquer'd in th' Close o' th' Year;
LAbours compleated, homeward soon all steer
